

A N

39

Alarm to Arms,
O R,
The Kings Majesties
Resolution,

To raise Arms against all those that shall oppose or resist Him, in the suppressing the Ordinance of Parliament concerning the Militia;

Published by His Majesties Command.

Whereunto is annexed

The Parliaments
Resolution

To raise Forces to maintain the said Ordinance, and
to defend all those that shall stand for the maintenance of the same.

Ordered that this be forthwith Printed and published:
H. Ellyng, Chr. Parl. D. Cohn.

The last news from Holt, of many Cavaliers slain
by Sir John Horhamer men.

London, Printed for George T. Wallis, July 29.
1642.

AN Alarm to Arms,
 OF
 The Kings Majesties
 Resolution

To raise Arms against all those that shall oppose or resist them in the suppressing the Ordinance of Parliament concerning the Militia.

Published by His Majesties Command.

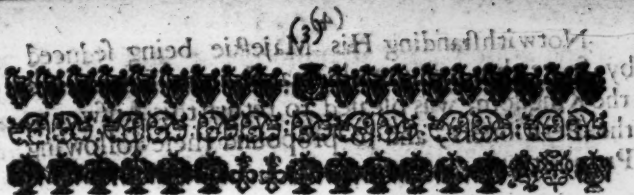

Where
 The Parliament
 Resolution

To raise Forces to maintain the said Ordinance and
 to defend all those that shall stand for the maintenance of the same.

Ordered that this be forthwith Printed and published:
 H. Blythe, Clerk of the House of Commons.

The last news from Hall, of forty Cavaliers slain
 by Sir John Hotham's men.

Printed for George T. Easton, July 29
 1642.

A N

Alarum to Arms, O R, The Kings Majesties Resolution, &c.

His Majestie having by the Earl of Holland received a Petition for Pacification from the High Court of Parliament, wherein was an humble Remonstrance of their desires, both on His Majesties part and their own, wherein they solemnly protested that if His Majestie would be graciously pleased to condescend to their Just, Honourable, and necessary requests, they would lay down all preparations of War, and surrender His Majesties Magazin into His Tower of London, and that all their Counsells and Determinations should be employed to Advance His Majestie, and to Crown Him with more Honour then ever was enjoyed by any of His Perdecessors.

A 2

Not-

(4)
Notwithstanding His Majestie being seduced by some that are greatly feared to be Enemies to the Kingdom, was pleased to return this Answer to the Petitioners, and to propound these following Propositions.

1. That they would recall the Ordinance of the the Militia.

2. That they would deliver up His Majesties Magazine taken from Hull, be forthwith put into hands in which His Majestie may confide.

3. That His Navy be surrendered by the Earl of Warwick to Sir John pennington.

4. That all Arms, Leavies, and Provisions for War, made by the consent of both Houses be immediately layd down.

5. That the Parliament might be adjourned to some place where His Majestie might with security come neer them, and joyne with them in their consultations.

To these His Propositions, He added this His resolution, Declaring, that if these His Propositions shall be rejected, His Majestie nor doubting of the protection, and assistance of Almighty God, and the ready concurrence of His good Subjects, who can have no hope left them of enjoying their own long, long, if their King may be oppressed and spoiled, and must be remediless; & though His Towns, His Ships, His Arms, And His Money be gotten and taken from Him, He hath a good cause left, and the hearts of His People, with which He doubts not but with Gods blessing to recover all the rest. Lastly, if the preservation of the Protestant Religion, the defence of the Liberty, and the Law of the Kingdom, the Dignitie and Freedom of Parliament,

Be Equally precious to the Petitioners, as they are to His Majestie (who will have no quarrell but in defence of these) there will be a cheerefull and speedy consent to what His Majestie hath proposed, and desired.

And of this his Majestie expects a full and reall Answer by Wednesday the Twenty seven of this Instant July, till then He will not make any attempt of force upon Hull, hoping in the Duty, and Loyalty of the Petitioners: And in the meane time expects that no supply of men be put into Hull, or any of His Majesties goods taken from thence.

The Lords and Commons having received this unexpected Answer, set down their Resolution concerning the same, in these ensuing Votes.

1. That an Army should be forthwith raised for the safety of the Kings Person, defence of Both Houses of Parliament, and of those that have obeyed their Orders and Commands, and preserving of the true Religion, the Law, Libertie, and Peace of the Kingdom.

2. That

2. That the Earl of Essex shall be Generall,

3. That in this cause, for the safety of the King's Person, Defence of both Houses of Parliament, and those who have obeyed their Orders and Commands, and preserving of the true Religion, the Laws, Liberties, and Peace of the Kingdom; They will live and die with the Earl of Essex, whom they haue nominated Generall in this cause.

Ordered by the Lords and Commons Assembled in Parliament, that this be Printed and published, Hen. Ellynge, Cler. Parl. D. Com.

FINIS.

A R E R A T I O N

O F

Threescore Cavaliers which was slain by Sir
John Hothams men.

TO relate to you of a Victorious Battle fought between some of Sir John Hothams men and the Cavaliers, who marching out of Hull, encountred with two Hundred and fifty Cavaliers coming towards Hull, they nobly stood to their Arms, and slew Threescore of the Cavaliers, and the rest of them were forced to fly leaving their Arms, which Sir John Hothams men gained with the losse of one man.

FINIS.